

UNITED IS THE WAY™

we increase families' financial stability.

FINANCIAL SECURITY

We're living at a time when federal emergency funds have run dry, eviction moratoriums have ended, and the wealthiest 20% of King County residents earn a whopping 22 times more than the bottom 20%.

Simply put, thousands of families are falling behind. All it takes is an unexpected expense like car repairs or a hospital bill to throw them into poverty. At United Way, we're working to maximize income for families because life happens.

SPOTLIGHT: Neighborhood House

Founded in 1906—just three years after United Way of King County—Neighborhood House is one of the oldest human services agencies in the Seattle region. Today, they continue to provide services to address the needs of entire families, with a focus on low-income community members, public housing residents, immigrants, and refugees.
